

Young Thespians Get Call for Production

Wanted: young thespians. Pre-teen youngsters interested in the theater can still enroll in the Lollipop Theater, children's drama workshop sponsored by the Bay Cities Civic Theater Assn. which also supports the Curtain Call Players and the Drawing Room Theater.

Only Tuesday morning classes are open to new enrollees, however, since Thursday, Friday, and Saturday sessions are now considered too far advanced for beginners.

Five- to 8-year-olds eager to learn of the world of the theater will meet Tuesdays from 9 to 10:30 a.m.; the 9- to 12-year-old group will meet from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. There is a charge of $2 per child per month.

Parents may enroll their children by telephoning 374-1309 or by accompanying the youngsters to the theater Tuesday morning at the time designated above according to age.

THE CURRENT curriculum was augmented last week by the addition of a music reading and theory class. A study of the dance will be included the first of September.

Instructors of present classes are Charles Rothlein, Jo Anne Rothlein, and Dorothy Burnett. New dance classes will be directed by Mrs. Jan Williams of Hermosa Beach. All the teachers are professionals in their fields.

To Demonstrate Ancient Cycles

Ancient bicycles and funnycycles will be on display from today through Sunday at the Foods Co. market at Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw Boulevard, store officials have announced.

On hand to demonstrate the ancient cycles will be Walter Nilsson, internationally famous unicyclist, and the Potter family. The famed cyclists will make a personal appearance from noon until 9:30 p.m. each day.

John M. Crowson, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Crowson of 3211 W. 188th St., Torrance, is serving aboard the submarine USS Razorback, which is participating on the annual "Sea Fair" festivities at Seattle, Wash.

Representing the First Fleet, the unit is one of many which took more than 3,000 Blue-jackets to the Northwest for the event.

"The 'Mardi Gras of Seattle,' the Sea Fair will be highlighted by the world's championship unlimited hydroplane race on Lake Washington.

Frederick E. MacKenzie, 4015 W. 177th St., Torrance, will leave for active duty in the United States Navy on Sept. 4. MacKenzie has been in the Naval Reserve since Nov. 28 and just recently passed the seaman apprentice exam.

He and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie, and a brother, Kenneth, have resided in Torrance for 12½ years.

Fall Coat Caravan Due At J. C. Penney's Today

Penney's will borrow a slice of life from the desert this week and play host to a caravan.

The caravan will roll into town today in the form of Penney's traveling Fall Coat Caravan, according to K. R. Doyle, store manager.

The caravan will be at the store for about 10 days, offering fashion-conscious women an opportunity to choose from an unusually wide selection of fall coats.

"PENNEY'S SPACE age version of a caravan will give more women here a chance to choose fall coat wardrobes from as complete and economical a selection as any shown in the larger fashion centers," said Manager Doyle.

He explained that Penney's is repeating the caravan this year because last year's initial effort was so well received. "We anticipate a good turnout here," the manager commented. "Some 550 stops have been scheduled for the coat caravan this year."

Most of the coats, sizes 8 through 18, will feature fur-trimmed collars. Most popular fall colors are expected to be beige and blue along with the ever-popular black. Coats will come in misses sizes, juniors, juniors petite and half sizes.

COATS ARE replenished from town to town so that each store offers a wide assortment. The caravan will remain here until Saturday, Aug. 25, before moving on.

The Penney's manager pointed out that all coats in the caravan may be purchased on convenient credit or layaway plans.

Drawing Room Theater Puts Tickets on Sale

Reservations are being taken for opening weekend performances of "No Time for Sergeants," Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, at the Drawing Room Theater, 1560 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Manhattan Beach.

Director Charles Rothlein promises audiences one of the funniest shows to be seen in this area. Adapted from the book by Mac Hyman, the comedy stars Bill Engle as Will Stockdale and other local favorites as Kip June, Roger Farnsworth, Bert Milligan, Tom Burns, Ron Frogget, and William Hurst. Rothlein himself will appear in the drama as Sergeant King.

Out-of-town actors participating will include Donald Larson of Downey and James Lockwood of Santa Monica. Sets for the 27-scene play have been designed by Rothlein and partially built by the Curtain Call Players, teen-age group associated with the theater. Marie Bunker is in charge of costuming, and props are under the direction of Dorothy Burnett.

Tickets for the premiere performances may be reserved by telephoning the Manhattan House of Music, 374-3444, or the theater, 374-1309. Prices are $2 and $1.80. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.
